

Getting to CINAHL

1. Go to the MUN libraries website <http://www.library.mun.ca/hsl/>

Welcome to the Health Sciences Library

Find Articles, Books, & More in PubMed Search

Catalogue | Articles | Reserves

Popular	Help	Research Tools	HSL Resources
Style Guides What's My PIN RefWorks Mobile Resources	Chat with Us Liaison Librarians Instruction Literature Searches	HSL Databases Ejournals Subject Guides Research Repository	Founders' Archive NLHKIN LibraryLinks More

2. Under Research Tools you will find a link to Health Databases

3. The link to CINAHL is the first one on the list of Top Picks.

Memorial University Libraries | Health Sciences Library

Research Tools ▾ Using the Libraries ▾ Our Libraries ▾ About Us ▾ My Stuff

MUN Libraries — Health Sciences (HSL) — Databases

Health Sciences Databases

Top Picks

CINAHL Plus with Full Text Guide	Electronic Books
The Cochrane Library Guide
EMBASE Guide
PubMed Tutorials
UpToDate - On-campus Memorial Users

Access Medicine
Access Pharmacy
Books @ OVID Guide
Clinical Key

4. If you are off campus (CNS or MUN), you will have to use an off campus user ID and pin that are available to MUN students and faculty. Go to <http://www.library.mun.ca/guides/howto/offcampus.php> for more information about IDs and pins.

OR you will need access to NLHKIN. To get an NLHKIN username and password , see Karen Hutchens